

#	Member of the Parliament	Constituency	Status	Notes
1	Ali Azim	HenveiruMedhu	Final hearing tabled by the Supreme Court for today, 24 th October, an year after the hearings have been completed.
2	Mohamed Nashiz		Final hearing tabled by the Supreme Court for today, 24 th October, an year after the hearings have been completed.
3	AlhanFahmy	S. Feydhoo	Case sent to the Prosecutor General by the Police, for "contempt of court." For criticising the Supreme Court in a MDP demonstration
4	Mohamed Rasheed	S. HithadhooMedhu	Trial ongoing for "terrorism."
5	Hamid Abdul Ghafoor	HenveyruDhekunu	Ongoing trial for 1)alcohol/drug use charges, 2) refusal to give urine sample charges Currently seeking refuge inside the Parliament House as Court has issued a warrant for his arrest. MP Hamid refused to attend last hearing citing the Parliamentary Priviledges Act (cannot set hearings for during Parliamentary session times). If found guilty- refusing to give urine sample could bring a one- year jail sentence, stripping him of his seat.	MP Hamid submitted a bill on Transitional Arrangement which require Dr. Mohamed Waheed to step down if no elections are held by 10 November 2013
6	ImthiyazFahmy	MaafannuUthuru	Case sent to the Prosecutor General by the Police, for "contempt of court." For criticising the Supreme Court in a MDP demonstration
7	Ibrahim Rasheed	MaafannuDhekunu	Case sent to the PG for "assaulting police officer." Another case at the Police "for assaulting a Police officer."
8	Ali Waheed	PG Deputy Leader	Court case started on February 2012 for "crossing the barricade lines in 2010." The case was initially dropped but later picked up again after the coup of February 2012. Another case under police investigation on charges of corruption.	MP Ali Waheed is the Chair of the Committee looking into the CONI report.
9	Abdulla Jabir	PG Deputy Leader	Ongoing trial for 1)alcohol/drug use charges, 2) refusal to give urine sample charges
10	Mohamed Rasheed		Case sent to the Prosecutor General by the Police, for "contempt of court." For criticising the Supreme Court in a MDP demonstration
11	Mohamed Musthafa		Mohamed Musthafa was stripped of his seat following Supreme Court ruling that he was liable for a debt owned by a private company to a now defunct bank.

12	Ismail Abdul Hameed		An Independent MP who frequently voted with MDP, on February 27, lost his seat in Parliament after the Supreme Court backed a ruling sentencing him to one and a half years banishment for allegedly misusing his authority to commit an act of corruption.	